

FALL 2021 ARC WORKSHOPS

All workshops are approximately 30 minutes. All workshops begin at 2:30 p.m. in L13.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS SKILLS WORKSHOPS

The Memory Game • Tuesday, September 7

Discover some new strategies and resources to help strengthen your memory.

Stress Management • Thursday, September 9

Learn how to identify your stressors and reduce your stress levels.

Test Preparation • Tuesday, September 14

Grow your study techniques beyond simple review of class notes.

Fight the Procrastination Monster • Thursday, September 16

Pick up some tools to outsmart the beast that wreaks havoc on your daily schedule.

Time Management • Tuesday, September 28

Adopt some strategies to manage your choices, clarify your priorities, and use your time well.

COLLEGE RESEARCH & WRITING SKILLS WORKSHOPS

Pre-Research* • Tuesday, September 21, and Tuesday, October 19

Develop skills that lead to better research.

Library Resources* • Thursday, September 23, and Thursday, October 21

Learn how to use library resources for academic success.

Thesis and Outline* • Thursday, September 30, and Tuesday, October 26

Develop a sound thesis statement and outline from your research.

Turabian • Tuesday, October 5, and Thursday, October 28

Learn Turabian formatting and citation guidelines for use in your research projects.

APA • Thursday, October 7

Learn APA formatting and citation guidelines for use in your research projects.

*These workshops represent the stages of the exegetical writing process. They also complement the stages used for assembling the Scripture Research Paper for Acts classes.