*Students in online courses will be administratively dropped on Friday morning of the first week of class if they do not participate in their online courses by Thursday evening. Starting Fall 1, 2020, students in online courses will be administratively dropped on Monday morning of the second week of class if they do not participate in their online courses by Sunday evening.

Students may email either the Dean of Online Learning or the Registrar's Office (especially after hours and weekends), or visit the Registrar's Office to initiate a course drop. Students who drop an entire module within the first week, but are not withdrawing from school, will pay a $50 administrative fee. No tuition refunds will be given after the end of week three (3).
