

Job Title: Kids Central Lead
Accountable to: NextGen Team Lead
Salaried/Hourly: Salaried

VALUES

At VRL we make disciples who make disciple-makers for Jesus. As VRL staff you are a critical part of that process. Your job will be tied to the values that help us to become and make disciples of Jesus as we:

1. Abide in Christ
2. Create a Relational Culture
3. Connect the Unconnected
4. Equip Volunteers to Serve
5. Share Christ with Others
6. Strive to make it Better

MY "ONE THING"

Create strategies to help kids and families take their next step through building and supporting an effective, efficient and passionate Kids team.

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES

- To oversee the Kids Team across all campuses at Valley Real Life. This includes oversight for paid staff on the Kids Team
- To develop key goals & strategies to help every kid to be actively discovering & growing in their faith.
- To help parents be involved in the spiritual formation of their child's life.
- To make decisions on the most effective programs to impact our kids.
- Oversee the budget for our Kids' Ministries
- Building relationships, encourage and empower the individuals of the Kids Team and volunteers.
- Delegate responsibilities and tasks to members of the team and key volunteers as gifting and abilities are discovered
- Ensure classrooms have adequate supplies, resources and facilities each week.
- Work with staff to cast and communicate a vision for Kids' Ministries that is consistent with VRL.

EXPECTATIONS, SKILLS & ABILITIES

- Attend VRL church services on a regular basis.
- Have attended a DNA class, signed a membership form and be in missional alignment with VRL.
- Be in a weekly small group on a regular basis.
- Committed to regular giving of income to God through VRL.
- Abiding in Christ and continuing to grow toward Christlikeness and spiritual maturity.
- Strong interpersonal skills, clear communicator and humble-like character.
- Self-motivated and looks for additional areas to contribute.
- Ability to work with minimal supervision & maintain workflow without being asked or tasked.
- Ability to multi-task and pay attention to detail.
- Ability to make adjustments in work style for the benefit of the team.
- This position requires grace under pressure as things are constantly changing, which can create an exciting, yet frenzied atmosphere.
- Participate in staff meetings, providing up-to-date information about ministry.
- Keep the NextGen Team Lead thoroughly informed of staff accomplishments, concerns and future plans.
- Maintain excellent relationships and open communication with all staff.

Strengths:

- Gifted in leadership | Strong relationally | Effective recruiter & team player | Solid organizational skills.

Requirements:

- Undergraduate degree
- 3-5 years experience leading Children's' Ministry in a large church setting.